Andy Greenberg and Andreas Hung, along with Jesse, composed "Time Is Moving Me" on a rainy afternoon during the Haw River Festival. Andy, a friend of Jesse's from the N.C. School of Science and Math, is now a freshman at Haverford College. Andreas is a social worker from Germany.

Beverly McLean grew up singing with her grandmother, from whom she learned "Don't Forget the Family Prayer". She started singing at New Hope AME Zion church in Sanford, and now sings with the Alston Chapel Omega Choir in Pittsboro. Her songs were recorded in the new sanctuary, empty at the time, on a cold January night. Contact information: destinechild@hotmail.com make up the True Believers, a duo that performs locally and has just released its first CD. Judi and Jim are both songwriters. Judi wrote "With Me Still" in the car on the way to the Augusta Music Workshop, for a songwriting class. Contact information: Jim Magaw, 919-942-1550; www.judiandjim.homestead.com.

Donovan Zimmerman is singer, drummer, and MC at the Haw River Festival for fourth-graders. He is puppet maker and puppet performer extraordinaire. Contact information: P.O. Box 186, Bynum, NC 27228; 919-542-5765

Lea Clayton is an organic grower, educator, and landscape gardener. She loves to sing, play banjo, and crew on the Haw River Festival. Contact information: P.O. Box 186, Bynum, NC 27228; 919-542-5765
